

■ The Club Tower development in central Christchurch has been awarded a 5 Green Star rating - the first building in the South Island to achieve the rating. The project is being undertaken by Latitude Group, which says its vision and philosophy is "to continually seek excellence" in the environmental sustainability of its properties. □